The Humane Society will be attending America Recycles Day!

Columbia, SC...On Saturday, November 14th, The Humane Society, along with many other vendors, will be attending the Annual America Recycles Day Event sponsored by Richland County Solid Waste. The event is located at the Clemson Research Center, 900 Clemson Rd. (across from Village at Sandhill) from 10am-4pm. Bring the kids along because there will be lots of recyclable games and crafts! Prizes will be awarded for each game played. You can join The Humane Society, specifically, in making animal jars to decorate your home! There will be performances by local entertainers and, back by popular demand, Jack Smink's "Tribute to Elvis!" There will also be FREE food and drinks from 11am-1pm. Richland County Solid Waste will be awarding a $500 prize to the Richland County School with the most attendance at the event, so invite your classmates! While you're here, bring your recyclables to turn in. They will be collecting electronics, auto tires, reusable household items, mattresses, scrap metal and medical aids. Recycling will be from 10am-3pm. The event is FREE. No admission charge. Come on out and join The Humane Society for lots of fun!

Activities for the kids include:

Pony Rides
Moon Bounce
Games
Richland County Sherriff's Dept. Kid's ID Program

Demos by the Richland County Sheriff's Department & Emergency Services

The Humane Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is a non-profit, Section 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1902 to address animal welfare issues in central South Carolina. Since that time, The Humane Society has evolved into an organization focused on ending animal cruelty, neglect and overpopulation through spay/neuter surgeries and cruelty investigations. The Humane Society receives no government funding and is entirely supported through operations of its spay/neuter clinic and through generous donations from caring individuals like you.
