The Humane Society's Spay Day Proclamation & Press Conference--RESCHEDULED!

Columbia, SC... The Humane Society is recognizing Spay Day 2010 on Friday, February 26th. Mayor Bob Coble is making it official for the City of Columbia by proclaiming that date as "Spay Day 2010 for the City of Columbia."

Join us tomorrow, February 23rd, 2010 at 4pm at City Hall (located at 1737 Main Street, Columbia, SC 29201). Mayor Coble will announce his proclamation at this time and The Humane Society and the Animal Mission will highlight their efforts to provide low-cost spay/neuter surgeries to residents of the greater Columbia area.

Media representatives are invited to attend.

Please join The Humane Society and the Animal Mission in kicking off this campaign.

The Humane Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is a non-profit, Section 501(c)(3) organization founded in 1902 to address animal welfare issues in central South Carolina. Since that time, The Humane Society has evolved into an organization focused on ending animal cruelty, neglect and overpopulation through spay/neuter surgeries and cruelty investigations. The Humane Society receives no government funding and is entirely supported through operations of its spay/neuter clinic and through generous donations from caring individuals like you.
